Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Each celebration of the Eucharist draws us to Christ, our hope and our strength. His presence forms our hearts for serving, sending us forth to share His light with individuals seeking comfort, dignity, and care.

The Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia serves this mission. Through CCA, I witness grace at work in one in five lives across our five-county region. I see children welcomed into Catholic schools, families receiving vital food assistance, elderly neighbors supported with dignity, and retired and infirmed priests upheld with gratitude.

This year, I invite you to join me in Giving Hope to All. Hope flows from Christ's gift of Himself in the Eucharist. Hope takes shape through acts of love offered in His name. Your support of CCA today becomes one such act, a sacred way of extending His care to individuals seeking the compassion of the Church.

Sincerely in Christ,

Nelson J. Pérez

Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

In Christ, hope is a gift we receive at the altar, a grace we share with every heart that seeks Christ's care.

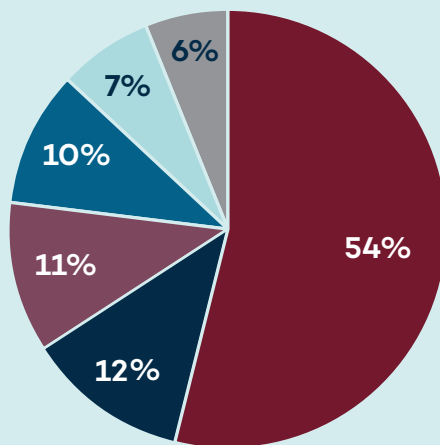

The Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia supports and sustains more than 100 vital ministries and programs that bring Christ's love to those in need. Reaching every corner of the five-county metropolitan area, CCA provides food, shelter, education, and care, bringing tangible hope to those most in need.
