

Hope that Flows from the Eucharist

Each celebration of the Eucharist draws us into a more deeply personal relationship with Jesus Christ, our hope and our strength. He forms our hearts for service and sends us forth to share His light with those seeking comfort, dignity, and care through the charitable ministries and service programs supported by the Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Giving Hope to All

The Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia strengthens more than 100 charitable ministries and service programs that bring Christ's love to every corner of our five-county region. Through CCA, hope becomes tangible through food, shelter, education, and compassionate care.

Grace at Work in our Local Church

Through the Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, we witness grace at work in the lives of one in five people each year. Children are welcomed into Catholic schools, families receive vital food assistance, elderly neighbors are supported with dignity, and retired and infirmed priests are upheld with gratitude.

One Family in Christ

The Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia reminds us that we are one family in Christ. When we care for the poor, the sick, and the vulnerable, we live out the Gospel mandate to serve others as a reflection of Christ's compassionate love in our community.

An Invitation to Act

Supporting the Catholic Charities Appeal (CCA) of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is a sacred act of love. Hope flows from Christ's gift of Himself in the Eucharist and takes shape through our generosity, extending His care to all who seek the compassion of the Church.
